Welcome to the 2018 Berkshire Grown Guide to Local Food & Farms!

You're holding the region's best guide to farms, farmers markets, and restaurants offering local foods. Within these pages and online at berkshiregrown.org/findfoodandfarms, you can find Pick-Your-Own (PYO) opportunities (blueberries, raspberries, apples, and pumpkins – to name just a few); nearby farmers markets; CSA farms; local producers of chocolate, bread, coffee, and beer; and retailers who support local food and farmers.

I hope you will be inspired to become a member of Berkshire Grown. As a member, you will help us to extend the season by producing eight delicious Berkshire Grown Holiday and Winter Farmers Markets. Plus, your membership supports Share the Bounty – our win-win project that buys shares in local farms and distributes the food to pantries and kitchens to help feed some of our hungry neighbors.

Use this Guide frequently! Each time you buy directly from a farmer you keep your dollars in the local community and eat the freshest, most delicious local food and farm products.

Supporting local farmers enriches our whole community. Thank you!

Barbara Zheutlin
Executive Director, Berkshire Grown

Become a Member of Berkshire Grown!

Berkshire Grown is the region's prime champion of farms and local food. We are creating a county-wide food economy, bringing the community together to promote eating local, making sure our farms are viable businesses, and preserving the Berkshires' rural character. As a member, you'll get the e-newsletter, a sticker for your car or water bottle, and member discounts on event tickets. Membership supports our local farmers and restaurants – and helps our food economy thrive.
